

STATE ✓ VERMONT	COUNTY Orange	TOWN OR VICINITY Randolph Center 9p (Main Street) 4d
INDEX NUMBER VT, 9-RAND, 1	MONUMENT Lebbeus Edgerton House
REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE	H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO. VT. 38	History - This brick house, typical of its period, was built by Lebbeus Edgerton, a Vermont politician, who is presumed to have designed the house. The wood rear ell was erected in 1801, while the front brick portion was erected in 1830. Description - Brick, laid in Flemish bond, two-and-a-half stories, gable roof, two-story Ionic pilasters at corners of front facade;
PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS
PUBLISHED DRAWINGS

✓ (over)

Palladian window in front gable at third floor level;
earlier wood ell in rear.

References - Mr. Wesley Herwig, Randolph Center, Vt.
Abby Maria Hemenway, Editor, The Vermont Historical Gazetteer, Volume ii, Burlington, Vermont, 1871.

Author of Card - Dorothy E. Green, Clerk, National Park Service, 143 South Third Street, Philadelphia 6, Pa. --
March 2, 1960
